SALE OF THE SENATORS.

Expected That Negotiations Will Be Concluded by Tomorrow.

"There is nothing new in the baseball situation," asserted E. L. Altor, legal representative of Fred Postel, President of the Washington Baseball Club, last night. "You may say, if you like, that I simply came here as attorney for Mr. Postel in connection with the transfer to him of the stock of Mr. Manning, the manager of the club. Mr. Postel has an option on Mr. Manning's stock. It will expire Friday, by which time I hope the matter will be adjusted to the entire satisfaction of everybody interested in the welfare of the club. You may also say that there will certainly be a club in Washington next summer; that it will be a good one, and will be a paying proposition, whoever has the controlling interest."

Mr. Altor is from Detroit, where Mr. Postel resides. Mr. Postel is proprietor of a large hotel, and has large interests. Mr. Altor came here several days ago to wind up the option which Mr. Postel had on Mr. Manning's stock. The option dated back some weeks. Mr. Manning having gone to Detroit, and while there offered to dispose of his majority interest in the club. Mr. Manning owns fifty-four shares of the stock, and the option is on fifty-one shares, which, with the twenty-six already owned by Mr. Postel, would give him a controlling interest. The proposition would leave the club in the hands of Mr. Manning and the remaining twenty in possession of about six local stockholders.

Many reasons have been advanced to explain Mr. Manning's action in offering to sell his stock, but the real reason was friction with Ben Johnson, President of the American League. One of the matters over which they are quarreling is the proposed sale of the franchise to the city of Washington. Mr. Manning desired to obtain the services of five players, among them Delahanty, and is said to have refused to devote the club's pro rata share of 10 per cent of the reserve fund to that purpose. Johnson is of the opinion that the club should sell its stock, but Mr. Manning concluded it would be better for him to sever his connection with the club. Mr. Postel is a close personal friend of both Johnson and Manning.

Everything went well until there was a hitch in the negotiations Tuesday. Some of the local stockholders met and informally discussed a proposition to purchase Manning's stock and retain him as manager. Although the three shares were among those interested in the club, over Manning's intention to resign the management, it is understood that the stockholders are not inclined to do so. It is said that his intention to do so is firm, and that he will cease to have any interest other than that he has three shares in the stock in the club after he disposes of his stock. The pending negotiations will be concluded tomorrow, if not today. As matters stood last night, it looked as though every detail would be amicably arranged, and that the original proposition for the transfer of Manning's stock to Postel would be the one finally accepted.

CONCLUDING THE DOYLE TRIAL.

Arguments of Attorneys Relative to the Jury Charge Begun.

When the trial of Charles Doyle, colored, who is charged with the murder on July 18 last of Hallard Dent, colored, was resumed this morning, additional testimony in rebuttal was offered by the Government.

The first witness was Harry Hoagland, a newspaper reporter, who testified that the defendant stated to him that he ran away from the scene of the tragedy because he feared Dent would strike him with a pitchfork. Policeman Larry O'Don was called to testify relative to Doyle's condition as to sobriety seen after his arrest. He stated that the defendant was nervous but sober. At 11 o'clock the jury was excluded from the courtroom and argument relative to the instructions to the jury was begun.

The opening argument to the jury on behalf of the Government was begun by Assistant District Attorney Taylor shortly before noon.
